REGARDING BOARD MEMBER CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

SUBJECT: Adoption of a policy and procedure regarding Director conflicts of interest and a code of ethics.

PURPOSE: To adopt a policy and procedure to be followed when a Director has a conflict of interest to ensure proper disclosure of the conflict and voting procedures and to adopt a code of ethics for Directors.

AUTHORITY: The Declaration, Bylaws and Articles of the Association and Colorado law.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2006

REVISED: January 1, 2007

RESOLUTION: The Association hereby adopts the following policy and procedure regarding Director conflicts of interest and code of ethics:

1. General Duty. The Board of Directors shall use its best efforts at all times to make decisions that are consistent with high principles, and to protect and enhance the value of properties of the members and Association. All Directors shall exercise their power and duties in good faith and in the best interest of, and with utmost loyalty to the Association. All Directors shall comply with all lawful provisions of the Declaration and the Association's Articles, Bylaws, and Rules and Regulations.

2. Definition. (i) "Conflicting interest transaction" means a contract, transaction, or other financial relationship between the Association and a Director, or between the Association and a party related to a Director, or between the Association and an entity in which a Director of the Association is a director or officer or has a financial interest. (ii) "Director" means a member of the Association's Board of Directors. (iii) "Party related to a Director" means a spouse, a descendant, an ancestor, a sibling, the spouse or descendant of a sibling, an estate or trust in which the Director or a party related to a Director has a beneficial interest, or an entity in which a party related to a Director is a director or officer or has a financial interest.

3. A conflict of interest exists whenever any contract, decision or other action taken by or on behalf of the Board would financially benefit a Director or a party related to a Director.

4. No loans shall be made by the Association to its Directors or officers. Any Director or officer who assents to or participates in the making of any such loan shall be liable to the Association for the amount of the loan until it is repaid.

5. Disclosure of Conflict. Any conflict of interest on the part of any Director shall be verbally disclosed to the other Directors in open session at the first open meeting of the Board of Directors at which the interested Director is present prior to any discussion or vote on the matter. After disclosure, the Director may participate in the discussion and may vote on the matter. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the composition of the quorum and record of who voted for and against.

6. Failure to Disclose Conflict. No conflicting interest transaction shall be voidable by a Member or on behalf of the Association if: (i) The facts about the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed to the Board, and a majority of the disinterested Directors, even if less than a quorum, in good faith approves the conflicting interest transaction; (ii) The facts about the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed to the Members entitled to vote on the matter, and the conflicting interest transaction is authorized in good faith by a vote of the Members entitled to vote on the matter; or (iii) The conflicting interest transaction is fair to the Association.

7. Code of Ethics. In addition to the above, each Director and the Board as a whole shall adhere to the following Code of Ethics:

(a) No Director shall use his/her position for private gain, including for the purpose of enhancement of his/her financial status through the use of certain contractors or suppliers.

(b) No contributions will be made to any political parties or political candidates by the Association.

(c) No Director shall solicit or accept, directly or indirectly, any gifts, gratuity, favor, entertainment, loan or any other thing of monetary value from a person who is seeking to obtain contractual or other business or financial relations with the Association.

(d) No Director shall accept a gift or favor made with intent of influencing decision or action on any official matter.

(e) No Director shall receive any compensation from the Association for acting as a volunteer.

(f) No Director shall willingly misrepresent facts to the members of the community for the sole purpose of advancing a personal cause or influencing the community to place pressure on the Board to advance a personal cause.

(g) No Director shall interfere with a contractor engaged by the Association while a contract is in progress. All communications with Association contractors shall go through the Board President, Committee Chairman or Association Manager or be in accordance with policy.

(h) No Director shall harass, threaten, or attempt through any means to control or instill fear in any member, Director or agent of the Association.

(i) No promise of anything not approved by the Board as a whole can be made by any Director to any subcontractor, supplier, or contractor during negotiations.

(j) Any Director convicted of a felony shall voluntarily resign from his/her position.

(k) No Director shall knowingly misrepresent any facts to anyone involved in anything with the community which would benefit himself/herself in any way.

(l) Language and decorum at Board meetings will be kept professional. Personal attacks against owners, residents, managers, service providers and Directors are prohibited and are not consistent with the best interest of the community.

8. Supplement to Law. The provisions of this Resolution shall be in addition to and in supplement of the terms and provisions of the Declaration and the law of the State of Colorado governing the community.

9. Deviations. The Board may deviate from the procedures set forth in this Resolution if in its sole discretion such deviation is reasonable under the circumstances.

10. Amendment. This policy may be amended from time to time by the Board of Directors.
